

The children, staff and governors at The Carlton Junior Academy are committed to the achievement of the Stephen Lawrence Education Standard. The standard is recognition of the school's journey of embedding race equality into the life of the school and to ensuring a wholly inclusive curriculum where all children, regardless of race, gender, ethnicity or faith, can achieve and reach their full potential.