

THE CARLTON
JUNIOR ACADEMY

THE CARLTON
INFANT ACADEMY

13th March 2023

Dear Parents/Carers,

National Education Union (NEU) Industrial Action

You are probably aware that the National Education Union (NEU) members across all schools in England are due to hold their next strike on Wednesday 15th and Thursday 16th March 2023. At this point, we believe that this will have no impact on classes at the Carlton Junior and Infant Academies.

This means that all children must attend as normal on the strike action day; we are able to keep both academies open as normal, as far as we know at this point.

However, we would like to point out that unions do not disclose which staff are in which unions, and the staff themselves do not have to tell us in advance if they are going to strike. They can also change their minds about taking strike action up to the day of the strike. If we are notified in advance of any further changes, we will endeavour to let you know at the earliest opportunity.

Should there be any further strike action days planned, we will let you know as soon as possible about the arrangements for these days.

We would like to thank you for your patience and understanding around the uncertainty these strike days cause.
